

Other Websites of interest: by Marilyn Richardson Sept. 8, 2010

Dempsey Bob-west coast First Nations wood work

Landscape as Muse on SCN for one hour

<http://www.dempseybob.com/home.shtml>

APTN

<http://www.aptn.ca/>

Content needs to be reviewed for relevants and appropriate material for your classroom.

Here are some television programs that can be used.

1. APTN Investigates-social change and social issues
2. In Focus-social issues
3. Qimmit: a Clash of Two Truths-Inuit living
4. Reel Insights-movie production, fine arts
5. The Bionic Bannock Boys-check out appropriate language and content-comedy, breaking stereotypes.
6. Back in the Day on the Mighty Frazer-outdoor living challenge for city First Nations
-reality tv
7. Canyon War: the Untold Story
-how gold mining changed life for west coast First Nations people
8. Fish out of Water
-light entertainment-check for appropriate language, etc
9. Moose TV
-light entertainment centered around movie production-check it out
10. APTN National News